

Code of Conduct

Introduction

This Code of Conduct binds both committee and non-committee members of Hartfield School PTFA.

These guidelines describe the basic expectations for behaviour and the importance for all members to conduct themselves professionally and ethically, and will run alongside our constitution, which is a legally binding document.

In order for the PTFA to function successfully it is essential that all members agree to follow these guidelines while in acting in association with the PTFA.

The Code

- Any parent or guardian of a pupil attending St. Mary the Virgin C of E school, Hartfield, and all members of school staff are deemed to be members of the PTFA, with the vested interest in enhancing the school for all pupils.
- All work done on behalf of the PTFA is voluntary and is done for no personal gain.
- All members will act in the best interest of the PTFA and the school.
- All members will be encouraged to make relevant and positive contributions to meetings they attend.
- All members have the right to be heard and must respect each other's opinions.
- All members have the right to communicate together responsibly, in accordance with GDPR regulations. Communication media are outlined in the privacy policy and consent forms. Any matters relating to the school, should be directed to the school office.
- Any items emailed through to the PTFA email address may not be answered immediately. All committee members work on behalf of the PTFA on a voluntary basis, in their free time and may not be able to address issues straight away. Any query raised will need to be discussed by the committee and if necessary will be added to their next meeting agenda.
- The committee will work to the rules stated in their constitution. As per the constitution, decisions will be made by a majority vote of the elected committee members. The committee may from time to time consult with the wider membership, however the committee's decision is final.

This Template is a benefit of Parentkind membership. It is published by Parentkind for its members. Content in whole or part may be produced for the sole use of the PTFA whilst in Parentkind membership. For further information please contact Parentkind on info@parentkind.org.uk. Parentkind has made every effort to ensure the content is accurate and correct at the time of publication, but some details may be subject to change without notice. Parentkind will not therefore be held responsible for loss or other liability that may result from actions or decisions taken by a PTFA / member, based on this resource.

- All members must ensure that any material or discussion of a confidential nature, especially matters concerning individual staff, pupils or parents/guardians, is confined to the meeting, attended only by elected committee members. Names will be blacked out of the meeting minutes, if necessary.
- The committee should be made aware of any conflict of interest and the person involved should withdraw from any discussion pertaining to that subject.
- All members must respect the School and personal property.
- All paperwork and assets relating to the PTFA are the property of the PTFA, and not that of the individual. When leaving the PTFA a member should return any relevant paperwork or assets to the PTFA Committee.
- Should it be deemed by the committee that any member has disregarded this code or their actions have brought the PTFA or the school into disrepute, the committee has the right to exclude that member from future involvement. The procedure for removal of a PTFA member or PTFA committee member is stated in the constitution.
